An orphan gas well off Tail Feather Drive in North Ridgeville, Lakes, North Ridgeville, is being capped to prevent air and groundwater contamination. The well is preventing K. Hovnanian from putting up more homes in the area.

Second Harvest gets $75K donation from Wal-Mart

Steve Fogarty
The Chronicle-Telegram
LORAIN — Second Harvest Foodbank of Central Ohio will get a $75,000 donation to help expand its facility in the area with a $75,000 donation from Walmart.

The money is part of a $1 million gift to eight nonprofit Ohio food banks from Walmart with a goal of ending child hunger nationwide.

The North Ridgeville well — one of 10 drilled in Lorain County near a development home being built by K. Hovnanian — is estimated to be worth $300,000.

The Chronicle-Telegram
In Loving Memory of
George A. (Blaine) Naylor

George A. Naylor, 88, of Brook Park and retired of Oberlin Community. Naylor was a graduate of Oberlin High School.

During the depression he worked for the Civilian Conservation Corps during WWII as a pattern maker in the United States Navy. He lived in Mississippi where he worked as a pattern maker with Ford Motor Company in Jackson, Mississippi. He was stationed in Oklahoma. He was a member of the United Auto Workers Union. He was a member of the United Auto Workers Union.

George was survived by his wife of 59 years, Carol (Naylor) Dicke; his sons, John Dicke Jr. and Robert Dicke; his daughter, Karen (Dicke) Mock; his brother, John Dicke Sr.; his sister, Grace (Dicke) Stover; his granddaughter, Susan Mock; and his grandsons, Matt Dicke and Joe Dicke.

Friends are invited to call Tuesday, February 4, 2014, from 5 to 7 p.m. at Dickens Funeral Home, 3075 E. Main Street, Brook Park. Friends may also call Wednesday, February 5, 2014, from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. at the funeral home. Memorial contributions may be made to Hospice of the Western Reserve, 5191 Windplaces Drive, Cleveland, Ohio 44156, or to the Brook Park Senior Center, 5617 Turnpike Road, Brook Park, Ohio 44122.

Ace Rodachy

George Rodachy, 83, of Berea, passed away peacefully in his sleep on December 13, 2013, in Canton General Hospital. He was born on November 30, 1930, in Berea, to the late Vincent and Catherine (Rizzi) Rodachy.

He is survived by his wife of 33 years, Patricia (Barbarich) Rodachy; his sons, Joseph Rodachy (Rebecca) and Thomas (Paula) Rodachy; his brothers, John Rodachy and John Rodachy; his sister, Patricia (Bodnar) Bodnar; and many nieces and nephews.

Ace was in the United States Air Force from 1950 to 1954, and was an active member of the American Legion Post 78 in Berea. He previously worked at Goodwill Industries in Berea and served as a volunteer in the college. He was a member of the Berea Kiwanis Club and served as its President.

Ace Rodachy was a member of the Berea Kiwanis Club, and served as its President. He previously worked at Goodwill Industries in Berea and served as a volunteer in the college. He was a member of the Berea Kiwanis Club and served as its President.

Ace Rodachy was a member of the Berea Kiwanis Club, and served as its President. He previously worked at Goodwill Industries in Berea and served as a volunteer in the college. He was a member of the Berea Kiwanis Club and served as its President.

Ace Rodachy was a member of the Berea Kiwanis Club, and served as its President. He previously worked at Goodwill Industries in Berea and served as a volunteer in the college. He was a member of the Berea Kiwanis Club and served as its President.

Ace Rodachy was a member of the Berea Kiwanis Club, and served as its President. He previously worked at Goodwill Industries in Berea and served as a volunteer in the college. He was a member of the Berea Kiwanis Club and served as its President.